

PROTEST	DOCUMENT TYPE	PERSON-HOURS *	IMPEDIMENT
WEF	Mass Arrest Reports	40 hours	These documents will require extensive redactions as most of the arrests are sealed.
	49's	50 hours	As described in accompanying letter, these 20-year old documents are not located in a single defined location and it will take many hours to track them down. There are
	After-Action Reports	50 hours	See above
	Deposition Transcripts	30 hours, once the boxes are retrieved from archives	The files containing the transcripts are in cartons in Law Department archives, and it can take between one week and one month to retrieve cartons from archives.
	CCRB/IAB Records	30 hours
RNC	Mass Arrest Reports	30 hours
	49's	30 hours
	After-Action Reports	30 hours
	Deposition Transcripts	25 hours	Many, if not most of these transcripts have been produced. I have recently been informed of another place additional transcripts may live, and they need to be reviewed to determine if they are depositions of high-ranking officers as defined by plaintiffs
	CCRB/IAB Records	40 hours
OWS	Mass Arrest Reports	40 hours	There is no central repository for these documents, and they encompass almost two years' worth of protests. The will also require extensive redactions.

	49's	40 hours	Same as above
	After-Action Reports	40 hours	Same as above
	Deposition Transcripts	50 hours	There were more than 100 OWS cases, each case has an electronic file within the law department. The deposition transcripts in question might not be saved electronically and each of the 100+ electronic files has to be searched to find out. For those cases where the transcript was not saved electronically, the files must be retrieved from archives and reviewed. It can take between one week and one month to retrieve cartons from archives.
	CCRB/IAB Records	30 hours
BLM	Mass Arrest Reports	20 hours	After it is determined which protests in this are "BLM" protests over the seven-year period defined by plaintiffs'. These documents will also require significant redactions
	49's	20 hours	Same as above
	After-Action Reports	20 hours	Same as above
	Deposition Transcripts	Unknown, but up to 40 hours	The Law Department needs to determine which lawsuits arose out of BLM protests.
	CCRB/IAB Records	30 hours	These seven years of protests are not specifically noted as "BLM" protests
